Quartets to Be Featured

Barber shop music fans have a treat in store Friday evening when the Canyon Kiwanis Club presents "Parade of Quartets."

Durward Brown is chairman of the program which will be presented in the Canyon High School auditorium, beginning at 8 p.m.

Featured will be the Griggs Pioneers, the Bonnie Lassies, LaGrone Groaners and the Four Spectacles.

Master of ceremonies will be Uhlan Hare. Brown said that admission will be 50 cents for children and $1 for adults. There will be only general admission seats.

Members of the Pioneers are Jerry Beck, Dean Kelley, Bill Rawlings and Pat Patton. Lassies are Judy Estess, Joyce Smith, Joyce Estess and Floy Franks.

Members of the LaGrone Groaners, a local talent group, are Bill Knighton, Dr. Dudley Moore, Bob Allford and Bill Davis. Wendell Heiny, Dr. Jess Ghormley, Wess Graham and Dwight Elliott compose the Four Spectacles.

Tickets are on sale at Cooper's, Bellah's, Blackwell Insurance, and E.T. Cummings' office. Also, all members of the club are selling tickets.

Brown said that this will be another of the Kiwanis Club fund raising activities. The girls recreation program is currently being supported by the club funds.

No Change

No changes in city water and allied service charges were recommended by a special committee appointed by the city commission recently.

Weeds Must Go Say City Commissioners

The city commission is urging all property owners who have lots grown up with weeds to get the property mowed as soon as possible.

"Weeds are both a nuisance and a fire hazard," the commission points out. "In the summer months weed-infested lots harbor mosquitoes and other pests. In the winter such lots present a serious fire hazard when the weeds are dead and dry."

Public health laws of Texas authorize cities to require owners or occupants of lots to keep the same free from weeds, rubbish, brush and any and all other objectionable matter, Bill York city manager, said.

"If such owners or occupants fail or refuse to do so within 10 days after written notice or notice by publication, the city may cause the same to be done and provision is made for assessing a lien against such property for expenses incurred," York added.

Many complaints have already been received concerning lots grown up in weeds, York explained.

"You are urged to get your property cleared as soon as possible and since the city has only one mower, you are requested to contact private weed mowers," he concluded.

The city hall has a listing of persons who do custom mowing.

Brucellosis Petitions Now Being Circulated

Randall County Farm Bureau is sponsoring a brucellosis control program, according to R.B. Gist Jr., president of the organization.

This action was taken by the bureau officers and directors at a recent meeting. Billy Bible was assigned to carry out the program.

Brucellosis, or Bang's Disease, is an infectious disease of livestock which may be passed on to human.

The type II program such as the bureau is sponsoring will allow specialists with mobile laboratories to enter Randall County herds and blood test herds for the disease, Bible pointed out. This work will be done at no charge to the owners but indemnities will not be paid for diseased cattle removed, he added.

"At this time there are 73 counties in the state working under the program," Bible said. "Many of these are in the Panhandle."

"Before we can start on the program a petition bearing names of 75 per cent of the cattle owners on the current tax roll must be submitted," Bible explained. "These owners must own at least a majority of the cattle."

"We have a good start on the petition and now have owners of 51 per cent of the cattle and just about have 75 per cent of the cattle owners," he added.

Persons wishing to sign the petition may do so at the Farm Bureau office here. Also, most of the community directors have petition forms.

Under the present situation Randall County cattle, bulls and females unvaccinated over six months old, must now be blood tested, moved under a permit, be quarantined for a period of 30 to 60 days, and then be negative to another blood test before entering clean counties.

Bible said this restriction causes local cattle to bring less on the market than cattle from clean counties.

Search for Acid Attackers Ends, 'Victim' Charged

Search for "three thugs" who threw acid on Thom as J. Avinger, airman stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base, ended abruptly Tuesday morning.

Just over a week since the alleged attack occurred, Avinger admitted to officers he put a handful of lye on his own face.

He had earlier told officers he was attacked by three unknown men near the expressway at 34th Street. His story of the attack kept Amarillo policemen, Potter and Randall deputies busy for a week.

But certain points in his story began to create a doubt, one of the officers on the case said.

Although the chemical was thrown from a distance of five feet in pouring rain there were no signs on his shirt, the officer said.

Avinger was released from treatment at the base hospital and Monday morning an Amarillo detective and a Randall sheriff's deputy picked him up at the base for a polygraph test.

The deputy said Avinger broke and gave the correct story before the test could be conducted.

He told officers he had come into Amarillo and went to a show. Later he bought a can of lye and walked over the town.

He finally opened the can and poured some of the lye into his hand. When the rain hit it, Avinger said it became quite hot and he threw it down.

He then poured lye into his left hand, according to his statement, put his hand into his pocket to keep the rain from mixing with it and finally clamped the handful of lye across his face.

He was running into a service station while he was holding the lye to his face.

Avinger said he wanted out of the air force and gave this as a reason for mutilating himself.

After signing a written statement at Amarillo police headquarters Avinger was booked on false report. He was released to the base provost marshal's office.

Barbecue, Reunion Highlight Program

Old settlers, rodeo hands and the general public can plan on an event-filled weekend in Canyon August 4-5, according to Jerry LaGrone, chairman of a special committee planning the second annual Randall County Roundup and Old Settlers Reunion.

This year, in addition to the rodeo and old settlers session, there will be a barbecue and pancake supper.

On LaGrone's committee are R. B. Allen and Clark Jarnagin of the Sheriff's Possee; Joe Giddens, president, Mrs. Clyde Warwick and C. Boone McClure of the Chamber of Commerce; A. W. Lair, president of Rotary; Bob Wilkinson, president of the Jaycees; Dr. W. J. Wooten, president of Lions and Dr. C. C. Callarman, president of Kiwanis. LaGrone is a member of the Chamber.

Kicking off this year's celebration will be a parade through the downtown district at 4 p.m. Friday featuring riding clubs from the Panhandle area, rodeo performers and vehicles.

Immediately after the parade there will be a barbecue served on the courthouse square, Walter Jetton of Fort Worth catering.

Tickets are available from posse, chamber and service club members. They cost $1.25 each.

Clark Jarnagin said an advance ticket sale was being encouraged so that adequate food will be available.

The barbecue is being underwritten by the organizations selling tickets.

First rodeo performance will be Friday at 8 p.m. The Randall County Roundup and Old Settlers Reunion will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Highway Patrol Investigates 10 June Wrecks

The highway patrol investigated 10 accidents on Rural Highways in Randall County during the month of June, according to Sgt. Roger Sosebee, highway patrol supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for one person killed, four injured, and a property damage of $6,830.00.

jen Brothers of Happy will again furnish stock for the contests.

At both rodeo performances a calf scramble will be featured for youngsters.

Activities Saturday begin with the old settlers' reunion on the courthouse square. This year a program featuring square dancing, fiddling and a speaker to be named will be presented for the settlers.

Prizes also will go to several of the old timers.

The oldest settler; the oldest person; the first person born in the county and the person coming the greatest distance.

Following the program and presentation of awards there will be a "visiting session."

At 5 p.m. Saturday there will be a pancake supper in the American Legion Hall. All old settlers who register will be admitted to the pancake supper free of charge. Tickets will be sold at the following rates: adults, 75 cents, children, 50 cents.

Final performance of the rodeo will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Winners Collect Prizes

Mrs. Betty Howard was first place winner in The Canyon News Get Acquainted Contest.

Mrs. Howard presented a perfect paper at The News office at 12:05 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. She had it first. She had it right. She received a check for $40.00.

Mrs. Howard drew on a wide circle of acquaintance for her winning entry. She knows all but a few of the 80 merchants pictured and the ones she didn't know, she knows now.

Mrs. Amanda Eugene Crow batted 100 percent but was 41 minutes behind Mrs. Howard with her second-place entry. She received a check for $15.00.

Kenny and Billy Crossland knew all the answers but they didn't show up at The News office until 1 o'clock. They received a check for $10.00, the third prize.

Names of the merchants and the firms they represent are in this edition.

Guardsmen to 'Camp Out' Two Weeks at Fort Hood

Members of the Canyon National Guard unit will leave Sunday at 3 a.m. for two weeks of training at Fort Hood, near Temple.

The 61 Canyon citizen-soldiers comprise the mortar platoon of the 36th division's Combat Support Company, First Battle Group, 142nd Infantry.

First Lieutenant Donald J. Briggs is platoon commander. Second Lieutenant Hubert G. Greiner is another officer in the platoon.

Buses will haul the main body of the Canyon men Sunday but some will leave Friday afternoon in army vehicles.

Some 8,000 men from all parts of Texas will converge at the Central Texas military reservation for the 15 days of drill, discipline, maneuvers and classes.

Part of the division will already have undergone one week of duty. Members of the armored elements, 1,000 in all, arrived at Fort Hood last Sunday for weapons firing and maneuvers. They will finish during the middle of the rest of the division's encampment July 30.

The main body of the division, including the Canyon troopers, will return home August 6. Major training goal this year, General Carl L. Phinney, division commander, said, is completion of the squad level army training tests by each company size unit.

"This year's summer camp will be one of the most important since the end of World War II," the general said. "Completion of the army training tests will permit the division to progress to higher levels of unit training."

The 36th division includes an area from El Paso to Port Arthur and from Kingsville to Amarillo.

Phinney is a Dallas attorney. Assistant division commander is Everett S. Simpson, an Amarillo attorney.

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

Last night as I sat in on a meeting of 15 senior citizens at the Methodist Church and participated in their friendly and joyful chatter, heard their songs of praise, shared their venerable laughter, enjoyed their tales from yesteryear, and gathered inspiration for what is left of life I thought of the words of that old sage, Oliver Wendell Holmes, when he wrote: "To be 70 years young is sometimes more cheerful and hopeful than to be forty years old."

Younger generations will do themselves a favor to ponder that piece of philosophy. Age is not so much a matter of years as of attitude. It involves a philosophy of life—a way of living. Just a few days ago a wise man was granted as having said about a friend: "He died at the ripe old age of 25," meaning, of course, that his friend's premature death was caused by his self-indulgent habits—his way of life. He was old at 25.

On the other hand, I had a letter recently from a man who is crowding 100 and, written in long-hand, it was easily legible. Those of you who don't know Frank Norfleet and his record in voluntarily tracking down criminals have missed something. There is nothing else like it in the history books; and the most exciting TV western is pale beside it.

I am not holding up Frank as an all-round model—and he has never claimed to be—but he is not a Prodigal Son either. His attitude toward life has been dynamic, but not self-indulgent. He once said to me, "I never take No for an answer unless I want to." Life has never bluffed him and he loves it.

Once when I was in his home (he was then above 90) he told me about an experience he had that reveals a courage of rare quality. Born and reared on the western frontier, he is "daffy" about horses. He always has a prize animal. On one occasion he took a choice young mare to some kind of horse show at Los Angeles. While there she was stolen. In spite of all he could do he had to come home without her. A month later he had a letter from an officer of the law saying he believed he had located the lost animal. Frank hurried to L.A., got a lead from the officer, and located his mare in a shed way out in a thicket 17 miles from the city.

While they were renewing their acquaintance the thief walked up and exclaimed in unprintable language: "Get away from here and leave my horse alone." Quick as a flash the little Texan, who had no gun, rammed his hand inside his shirt, simulated a pistol with his thumb, looked the thief straight in the eye and said: "Sir, if you open your mouth again I'll shoot you so dead you'll stink before you hit the ground."

These are words of youthful daring though 90 years lay behind the speaker. They did the job, too. Frank Norfleet brought his cherished horse-flesh back to Hale Center, Texas.

You know the story of John Quincy Adams, who as an octogenarian was in very bad health. One morning on the street a warm personal friend gave him the customary salute—"How are you this morning Mr. Adams?" The quick reply was: "Mr. Adams is quite well, thank you, but the old house he lives in is about to tumble down."

My idea of age is well expressed in the following poem by H. S. Fritsch:

Age is a quality of mind.
If you have left your dreams behind,
If hope is cold,
If you no longer look ahead,
If ambition's fires are dead—
Then you are old.

But if from life you take the best,
And if in life you keep the jest,
If love you hold;
No matter how the years go by,
No matter how the birthdays fly—
You are not old.

There's been a hue and cry lately to move the bones of William Bonney, alias Billy the Kid. The Kid is buried at Fort Sumner, New Mexico, where he was gunned down by Sheriff Pat Garrett one sultry July night in 1880.

Court action is threatened to move the bones of Billy to Lincoln County because commissioners of De Baca County, in which Fort Sumner is located, haven't seen to it that the grave was "properly tended."

The grave of Billy the Kid is emmeshed in a fence of heavy gauge wire. It is marked with a head stone and probably is about as well kept as any grave in New Mexico.

The Kid's grave is visited by thousands—almost a shrine to lawlessness.

When we visited the old cemetery in 1958 we noticed that across the cemetery from the Kid's grave is the grave of one of the most prominent men in the history of the Southwest—that of Lucian Bonaparte Maxwell.

Maxwell was a fur trader, trapper and businessman. He moved to New Mexico to take over management of one of the largest tracts of land ever to be owned by a single man. His contributions to the development of his country must have been many.

Within less than 50 feet of the well-kept grave of New Mexico's most notorious outlaw is the grave of one of her most useful and illustrious sons. At the time we visited the cemetery the Maxwell grave was a mess of weeds and prickly pears.

For shame on us all who revere the memory of an outlaw, hated and feared in his time, above the memory of those who were great in the service of their country.

We wonder if the name of Caryl Chessman in the year of 2061 will be remembered as a glorious example of the 1950's rather than the names of Jonas Salk and Dr. Thomas Dooley.

Newburgh, N.Y., probably has one of the highest tax rates—$31.00 per $1,000.00 valuation—in the nation. It also has one of the nation's heaviest welfare burdens. One third of Newburgh's income is being spent on direct relief for the indigent.

Newburgh's city fathers last week decided to do something about it and brought down upon themselves the full fury of aroused Washington bureaucrats.

Rollie Hyde, our advertising manager, was glad to get a vacation and is spending time with relatives in Oklahoma. I'm not so happy about mine. For the next two weeks I, and many other Canyon "citizens-soldiers," will be tramping around at Fort Hood, Texas, in 100 plus degree heat combating chiggers, mosquitoes and rattle snakes.

We heard that our unit will be camping along a creek appropriately nicknamed "Copperhead Creek." Last year campers in the area killed 32 of the serpents within an hour. But if all goes well, there will be news coming home about events taking place there.

Bill Collins, executive director of the state parks, visited Palo Duro over the weekend. He said that action on the proposed lake is pending. One engineer said the lake could silt up in about a 15-year period.

Frank Kimbrough told several people about the 15-pound cat he caught the other day. It made a good story until he explained where he caught it—in the back yard.

Mrs. Ples Harper visited a neighboring community recently to explain the shrine drama project. After Mrs. Harper finished discussing plans one lady in the group came up and said:

"Now tell me, Mrs. Harper, is it a film?"

Roland Black, Chamber of Commerce manager, said the

The city council decided that able-bodied people must work on the city streets if they are to draw subsistence from the public till. Unwed mothers who continue to have illegitimate children also will be taken from the welfare roll.

"Unfair!" screamed Washington. At week's end one commentator reported that economic sanctions have been threatened against the entire state of New York if this "deplorable" situation in Newburgh is not remedied at once.

The same knaves who are screaming about Newburgh, interfering with home rule and justice—will tell you with a straight face that federal aid to education will not bring the slightest vestige of federal control.

Switch Grass Plot Offers Excellent Quality Grazing

Ninety head of cattle grazing on 20 acres for three weeks and showing an improvement during the period sounds like a tall tale. But it's true at the Mack Forrester ranch about 14 miles northwest of Canyon.

The secret to the story is an irrigated variety of switch grass.

The Forrester ranch is operated by Carroll Forrester of Amarillo and he first used the switch grass plot in Deaf Smith County.

He has planted two 20-acre plots which are in use now and has another 30-acre which was planted only a few days ago.

Joe Batson of the Soil Conservation Service said the grass is excellent summer grazing.

"It may even be used for hay," Batson pointed out.

A fast growing crop, Clarence Howard who works on the Forrester ranch, said the grass had grown from about 4 inches in height to 10 inches in height in less than a week.

When not grazed, the grass will reach full growth at approximately 36 inches.

At the Forrester place cattle are turned in on it at a length of about 18 inches and it is grazed down to about 4 inches.

Cattle are then taken off the plot, the plot is watered, allowed to dry and ready for use again. Requiring only one planting the switch grass will last indefinitely.

Howard said the plots on the Forrester ranch are more or less a permanent thing. "We've had good luck with the grass so far," he said.

This is the only large plot in the county to Batson's knowledge.

Only maintenance required

Mr. and Mrs. A.M. Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newton attended the Cowboy Camp Meeting at Weatherly Lake, New Mexico during the weekend.

is watering and an occasional spraying. The Forrester grass had been sprayed for weeds once since planting in August of 1960.

The seed was planted with a carrot drill and there are two rows about 12 inches apart in each bed. Batson said the middles would have to be plowed out every now and then so that the grass can be watered.

If the grass is to be baled Batson said fertilizer should be applied for best results.

Plans now at the Forrester ranch call for dividing the 70 acres of grass into three equal pastures. One will be used for grazing, one will be watered and one will be drying.

"That way we can always have one of the pastures in use," Howard said.

Youth Week Is Scheduled For Church Groups

Youth Activities Week will be observed at the First Methodist Church, July 23-27. Mrs. A. C. Haley, Jr., is superintendent of the youth division. She will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Holcomb, senior sponsors, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Knowles, intermediate sponsors. The Rev. Newton Starnes is pastor.

The program schedule for the week includes the regular Methodist Youth Fellowship Sunday at 6:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, supper will be served at 6:30 p.m., and recreation will follow each evening at 7. The Rev. Lloyd Hamilton will discuss "Personal Religion" with the entire assembly each evening from 7:30 until 8:15. At that time, the Reverend Hamilton will direct the high school group, and the Rev. Charles Hastings, Jr., will lead the intermediates.

The devotional period is scheduled at 8:45, and the evening's activities will conclude at 9 o'clock. All local young people who are interested are invited to attend, Mrs. Haley said.

Mrs. Richard Hefley and sons, Mike, Ricky and Tim, of Gruver spent the weekend visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Berry.

Mrs. E.J. Cundiff and two of her sisters, Mrs. Johnnie Smith and Mrs. George Grogan of Amarillo, will leave this week for a trip to Casper, Wyoming, where they will visit with a sister, Mrs. J.T. Irick.

Phebian Class Holds Social

Mrs. R.A. Smith discussed, "History of the Baptist Church," when members of the Phebian Sunday School Class met for their monthly social in the home of Mrs. Ed Weeks. Co-hostess was Mrs. Fred Standley. Mrs. Earl Davis gave the devotional, using as her topic, "Walking."

Present were Mesdames L.L. Byars, Claude Moore, T. H. Knighton, Faye Cannedy, Earl Burtz, Carl Hartman, A. K. Goodman, Lee Allen, R. A. Hodges, W.B. Colwell, Davis, Standley and Weeks, members. Guests were Mrs. Jewel Phillips and Mrs. Lucille Bruhaug of Billings, Montana. Mrs. Phillips is a former member of the class.

WIND DAMAGE at the rodeo arena is shown above. Top of the concession stand was lifted and dropped a few feet away. Repairs will be made in time for the rodeo August 4-5.

TWISTER took the roof off a barn belonging to C.W. Weaver who lives near highway 87 at Hollywood Road. A horse was in the barn at the time but escaped with no injuries.

ANOTHER VIEW at the Weaver farm shows wreckage strewn across the foreground. He said a piece of tin almost cut the top out of a truck parked at his house. It was not the truck shown in the above photo.

Mrs. Jewel Phillips and Mrs. Lucille Bruhaug of Billings, Montana, are here for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P.V. Winstead, and with other relatives and friends. They will visit in Denver, Colorado, enroute home. Mrs. Phillips, a sister of Mrs. Winstead, is a former resident of Canyon. She is the former Jewel Laughery.

Mrs. D. M. Foster is in Arlington for a two-weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Stallings, who is ill. Dr. Stallings is an English instructor in Arlington State College. He was awarded his Ph. D. degree in June graduation exercises at the University of Texas. Both Dr. and Mrs. Stallings are former residents of Canyon.

South American Visitors Return

Wednesday night, July 5, three women returned to the Panhandle after three weeks of vacationing and sightseeing in South America.

Mrs. T.H. Knighton and Mrs.

Faye Cannedy of Canyon, and Mrs. Mary Lee Colclazer of Amarillo report that they found the people with whom they came in contact very friendly and with a receptive and interested attitheir home.

At the present time, Mrs. Martin is completing her Master's thesis, using as her subject, "Indian Lore in Northern Colombia". Her research takes her into many native Indian villages high in the Andes, where she secures tape recordings and pictures and learns of the customs and superstitions of the people. In August, Mrs. Martin will return to the States where she will enter Texas Woman's University, Denton, to complete class work toward her degree. She will be in Texas for the entire school term.

The visitors accompanied Mrs. Martin on two of her research trips to the Indian villages. Tunja was the first, and Sogamoso was the second. They visited Lake Tota to take pictures and stayed in a lodge located at 11,000 feet elevation in the Andes. The lake was described as a fisherman's paradise.

As they returned from Tunja, they stopped in the city of Zipaquirá where the large salt mines are located. Within one high mountain, a large and very beautiful sanctuary has been excavated. It is known as the Cathedral of Salt, and the walls appear as marble. Many altars are carved in the walls; one of which is called the "Altar of Our Lady", and contains the statue of the Virgin Mary. The cathedral has a convenient drive-in entrance.

The group returned to Bogota Saturday morning and flew across the Andes to Cali, one of the oldest cities in the Western part of Colombia. Cali has a population of 300,000.

While in Cali, Mrs. Knighton, Mrs. Cannedy and Mrs. Colclazer visited the Southern Baptist Seminary. Dr. Ben Wellmaker is president of the school. That weekend, Darlene Elliott, Seminary librarian, took them sightseeing.

They also visited Buga, north of Cali, which is a city of 250,000 persons. While there, they attended services at the Baptist church, which has a congregation of 260.

Returning to Cali, they went through El Paraiso, home of Jorge Isaacs, author of the novel, "Maria".

On the following Monday, Mrs. Martin picked the visitors up at the airport and took them to Sasaima where she was to be employed for five weeks in Camp Cacique, a girls camp.

While in Sasaima, they drove to Honda to see the Magdalena River, which is the lifeline of that area. The river flows into the Caribbean.

From the girls camp they went to visit in Mrs. Martin's home in Bogota. Thursday was "clean up, wash up, iron up" day in preparation for the return to the States.

Friday, they flew to Panama City, and Saturday, went on tour of the Panama Canal. The group was fortunate in being able to observe a freighter, a cargo vessel and a Japanese passenger ship pass through the Miraflores Locks.

Sunday, July 2, at 4 p.m., the women left Panama City and reached Miami just four and one half hours later. As they flew over a portion of Cuba, the clouds parted, and they were favored with a clear view of the eastern portion of the island.

Monday and Tuesday were spent in Miami where they took a boat trip around the bay and went on a guided tour of Greater Miami and Miami Beach. They saw the Fourth of July fireworks display from the top floor of the Columbus hotel, where the group dined earlier.

Mrs. Knighton, Mrs. Cannedy and Mrs. Colclazer left Miami at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday and arrived in Amarillo at 8:30 that night.

Special highlights of the vacation included a thirty minute stop in Jamaica on June 14 as they went over. The island appeared to be very beautiful as the visitors viewed it, and distinctly English. That was to be expected, since it is a British possession.

Also of interest were the to establish credit with the United States in order to better their economy and to purchase many necessities which are scarce. They contend that the United States would, in turn, share in profits from exports through the Canal.

Fourth of July Avenue divides Panama City from the Panama Canal Zone, and the United States owns five miles on either side of the Canal.

Politically, in Bogota, such inscriptions were found written over brick walls as "Communism sells men", and at the time of the tractor incident in Cuba, "We break with Castro", with a large black hand pointing various Baptist church services which the women attended. The first was in Bogota where Mrs. Martin is organist. As a special number she presented a male quartet who sang, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross", in Spanish. This is Mrs. Knighton's favorite hymn.

The Cali church was the second, and the service was conducted in Spanish. Panama was the scene of the third Sunday service. The congregation was composed largely of enlisted men, and the service was in English. David Lassiter, music teacher with the Baptist college in California, presented special vocal and violin selections.

Mrs. Knighton believes that the people of Panama are eager toward it, the women report.

By coincidence, they were in Bogota at the time of Adlai Stevenson's official visit. Great precautions were taken for his safety while in South America. His visit was not publicized, and he entered Bogota quietly by way of an old, and little used, port. Students from the University, armed with rocks, eggs and various missiles waited for Stevenson's arrival at the new port. By a quirk of fate and mistaken identity, an ambassador from Spain arrived and entered Colombia at the new port, and inadvertently was given the reception which had been planned by the students for Stevenson, Mrs. Knighton concluded.

The three left Amarillo by plane June 13, arriving in Miami, Florida, at 9:30 that night. At noon June 14, they boarded a jet at Miami and landed in Bogota, Colombia, at 4 that afternoon. Enroute, the jet plane reached an altitude of 36,000 feet and a speed of 605 miles per hour.

Rain, Wind Whip County Friday

What appeared to be a rain cycle in the Panhandle ended abruptly Friday night with dashing rain, hail and high winds. And Randall County and Canyon showed damage Saturday morning.

A tornado touched the ground near highway 87 at Hollywood road damaging outbuildings and killing small animals.

C. W. Weaver, who farms in the area the tornado touched said the twister took the roof off a barn of his.

"There was a horse inside but he wasn't injured in any way," he said.

Pieces of the roof were found approximately two miles away.

One piece of the tin struck a truck belonging to Weaver and almost cut the top off.

"We were in the house during the storm and when we saw the windows bulging in, we held blankets over them," he added.

The next morning Weaver found chickens which had been decapitated lying in the yard.

High winds left a toll on trees growing in the city. The city sanitation department is still cleaning up the aftermath.

Some damage to homes was reported.

The roof of the concession stand at the rodeo grounds was lifted off and dropped aside.

A porch on a house belonging to H.W. Shartle was torn off and blown across the road.

Electricity failed in some parts of town but Joe Gidden, manager of Southwestern Public Service, said all main lines were back in service by midnight.

Driving rain found its way into many homes staining walls but no serious damage was reported.

The hail, varying in size from small shot to marbles, did damage, to roofs, screens and siding, according to local insurance men.

$70,000 Available For Rural Randall Paving

Charles Smith, district highway engineer, told Randall commissioners Monday that $70,000 is available for farm road paving and asked the court where the money would be spent.

Smith pointed out several roads in precinct 4, which is under care of C.Y. Johnson, which might be paved. He added that the funds would pave approximately four miles of road.

Commissioners made no decision on the road which would be paved and Smith said his office would like to have a recommendation by Monday.

Representatives Southwestern Public Service appeared before the court to discuss bills on relocating utilities due to expressway construction.

No action was taken on the bills.

Minutes of the previous meeting show that commissioners authorized E. T. Cummings, county auditor, to re-invest $150,000 in 90-day bonds at the First State Bank of Amarillo.

Three Cars Collide At 4th, 23rd

Cars stacked up at the intersection of 23rd Street and Fourth Avenue Sunday, according to George Hinch, city policeman.

Hinch said three cars were involved in a collision at the intersection at approximately 5 p.m.

A 1956 Chevrolet convertible driven by Jack Vaughn Gouldy Jr. of Amarillo struck a 1959 Edsel driven by James Thomas LeGrand of Bushland.

LeGrand was completing a left turn off 23rd Street when Gouldy who was traveling north on 23rd street struck him, Hinch said. Force of the impact knocked LeGrand's auto into a 1961 Chevrolet driven by Robert Ezra Leitner Jr. of Amarillo. Total damage was set at $1075.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Standley, Sr. had all of their children and grandchildren as guests in their home Sunday. It is strange how many different paths you will follow when you are looking for a piece of pressed glass that matches a set.

Actually I know nothing about pressed glass. I am now interested in learning about pressed glass. One of the things owned by my family is a set with butter cover, spoon holder, and sugar bowl but the cream pitcher is missing. There seems to be many designs on all pressed glass. These designs have names to identify the glass. I am sure what we have is one of the "swirl group."

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by JOHN BRAZZIL

I like to be around people like M.B. (Farmer) Brown. I like to hear him talk about fishing for trout in the cold mountain streams, for bass in the lakes of Texas, or hear his description of his feelings as he sights over the business end of a good dog on point on a quail covey. He loves the fish and the game of our lands. He enjoys the thrill of matching wits with an old bull bass or outsmarting a covey of Blue Quail on the prairie.

Many Randall County land owners can enjoy some of this same sport. Right now the lakes and streams are high with fresh water. Fish for stocking these lakes and streams can be had for the asking. Fingerling fish can be obtained free from state or federal hatcheries. If you have a suitable place and wish to see that the small fish are appreciated and provided a chance to make big ones, now is the time to act. I have application blanks for fish from the federal hatchery at Santa Rosa. Our local game warden will be glad to work with you in securing stocking fish from the state hatchery at Dundee, Texas. The fish are delivered about twice each year to Canyon.

The Randall County Farm Bureau recently went on record as favoring the inclusion of Randall County in a brucellosis control program and some of the directors are actively soliciting petitioners. I understand petition forms can be picked up at the County office in Canyon. This Farm Bureau Office will have petitions ready to sign at your convenience.

Gary Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Fletcher of Route #2 Amarillo, is the 4-H Club council representative for Randall County. Recently Gary met with the district Council to plan the work for the next twelve months. This group planned a picnic scheduled for July 20 at Thompson Park in Amarillo. This picnic will replace the District I Club camp which was postponed this year. Gary will meet with the council during the day. Others invited to attend are Bob Gruner and Edward Hinders.

Higher feed grain prices will mean that the cost for producing feed beef will be higher. The higher grain price would make a difference of approximately $10.00 per head in the cost of feed to take a 750 lb. feeder steer to a slaughter weight of 1150 lbs. This increased cost could be offset either by a decrease in the cost of feeder cattle of $1.33 per CWT, or an increase in the price of fat cattle of 87¢ CWT, or some combination of price adjustments.

The increased feed grain price came about because 26% of corn and grain sorghum acreage is to be diverted from feed grain production.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Denny of Torrance, California, and Mrs. Veda Hale of Hawthorne, California, arrived Thursday for a two-weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Money and Mrs. A.W. Fortner, and with other relatives here. Mrs. Hale is a daughter of Mrs. Fortner and a sister of Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Money. Mrs. Denny, the former Eloyce Money, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Money.

Several months ago my sister decided she would try to locate a pitcher. Since then we have had a great time wandering through shops we hadn't visited before. Suddenly everything old has become exciting to me.

In McCall's Magazine for July, on pages 58 and 59 there are many of the things you can see in the different shops in the Panhandle.

There is an interesting book in the WT Library called "America's Arts and Skills" that shows many of our American collector items. The photography is very outstanding in this book.

This past week our search took us to Childress, Clarendon, and Goodnight.

In Childress there is a fascinating shop on the highway. Every wall is lined with something from days past. There are several rooms to look through and each one is crammed with interesting items.

In Clarendon, the little shop there has only been open for a short time. In this little store you will find some very unusual pieces from old iron to fragile china. There is also a corner that is set up just to exhibit old coins, stamps, and guns.

In Goodnight, the antique collector has to journey into the country to a red barn with a beautiful, brass weather vane on the top of its roof. You pull a chain on a large bell to arouse the keeper of the antiques to come forth from the house.

It is lots of fun to make this little short journey about the country. You really don't have to be looking for anything! In my recent tours, I have acquired an old easel, a brass box, and maybe a famous painting. Who knows!

The brass box has the letters P.N.C.W. made in the USA on it, so now I am searching for the meaning of the letters and wondering when the box was made.

It is quite a hobby to collect something. Find some special thing that catches your eye and start a collection. It doesn't have to be big items. I have decided to collect jewelry shaped in the form of the new moon. This should take time and make life even more interesting.

The story that has been written up in the Claude paper about the circle of sabers is most interesting. One of the sabers is in the Panhandle Plains Museum. The others have never been found. What a good TV Western this story would make!

"SECTION 12.08: Compilation and publication of delinquent tax rolls: Immediately after the end of the fiscal year of the City of Canyon as prescribed by the City Commission, it shall be the duty of the Assessor and Collector of taxes, or such other person or officer as may be designated by the City Commission, to prepare a roll to be designated as the Delinquent Roll, containing the description of all property described in the assessment rolls of the fiscal year just preceding, together with the taxes due thereon. Said delinquent roll shall be published not later than ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year or as soon as possible thereafter once each week for four (4) consecutive weeks is some newspaper published in the City of Canyon, and the City shall also be entitled to charge Two Dollars ($2.00) for advertising such tract of land separately assessed which shall be taxed as a charge against the property on which the tax is due, and no receipt to any delinquent tax payer shall be issued until such cost of advertising has been paid..." —Home Rule Charter of the City of Canyon, Texas.

Local Donations Bring Student To Stanford U.

Because of $392 donated by Canyon people, Priscilla Lasmaria, a Philippine student, will be able to reach Stanford University in California by September 1, in time to accept the scholarship which has been offered her.

When Mrs. J.D. Barker, who has corresponded with Priscilla for three years, learned that because of financial difficulties, it would be impossible for the girl to come to the United States, she felt compelled to help her. As the result of Mrs. Barker's efforts, the funds are now available, and the deadline will be met.

Priscilla was graduated from Silliman University, Dumaguete City, Philippine Islands, last March. She was an outstanding student in every way. She has been a leader in campus dramatics and an honor student. The girl has financed her way through the university with scholarships and various positions which she has held.

Since the Stanford scholarship will pay all of Priscilla's expenses, including vacation, Mrs. Barker hopes that at some time the girl can visit in Canyon. While Mrs. Barker knows that Priscilla has been active in evangelism, she does not know her church affiliation.

In describing her plight, Priscilla wrote, "Mrs Barker, I feel that the Lord is opening up this opportunity for me to make use of. All through these years, I have let Him run my life, and I believe that this once-in-a-lifetime chance to study is part of His plan for me to serve Him."

Mrs. Barker wishes to express her gratitude and appreciation to all those who contributed toward the fund for Priscilla, and she stated, "I feel that we have all made a sort of investment, both of interest and money which will be far reaching. Priscilla will return and work with her people when her stay at Stanford is completed."

Park, according to R.B. Allen, president of the organization.

Although marked by wet weather, Allen said the ride was a success.

Arriving in the park Friday afternoon the group spent the first day riding in the vicinity of the camping area south of water crossing 5. Early Saturday morning the entire party rode to the Lighthouse.

Allen said the Friday night rain did not interfere with plans in any way. "Some of the members who had planned to sleep outside had to sleep in their cars," he said.

Some of the members came home Saturday afternoon and some stayed through Sunday.

Allen said the posse was represented at the Tulia rodeo parade Monday afternoon. They won second place there.

Next big event scheduled will be the Randall County Roundup and Old Settlers Reunion August 4-5.

EXPERIENCE

How about a Fair Break for Railroads?

we're asking your support for equal treatment by government of all carriers, including the railroads

The Association of American Railroads has drawn up a document called "Magna Carta for Transportation."

We're asking for public support of this common-sense statement on public transportation policy, hoping citizens will recognize that an entire industry that serves them is being deprived of its natural rights—and will want to help.

What to do? Ask your congressman to help restore to the railroads these "four freedoms":

- Freedom from discriminatory regulation
- Freedom from discriminatory taxation
- Freedom from subsidized competition
- Freedom to provide a diversified transportation service
